WHY MONTESSORI?

The Montessori philosophy focuses on intrinsic motivation, participatory learning, and the process of understanding—all critical in the development of a revolutionary thinker who will succeed when faced with any obstacle. With a Montessori education, the possibilities are endless.

- The Montessori classroom environment and curriculum are designed to support each individual child's specific needs and abilities, allowing the child to explore and learn at his or her own pace.
- A child's natural curiosity is nurtured, rather than stifled by the limitations of "teaching to the test" and standardization.
- The combination of uninterrupted work periods and individualized lessons teach students to effectively problem solve, manage time, and think differently.
